

Hi Bob,
How have you been....i've been great here....working hard 2 jobs....and trying to find time to work on the Lambo...but i wont call it quits. I've been saving money for my wheels and tires. I've decided to go ALL OUT! on the Wheels, Tires and the Full Air Ride Suspension. Here I am sending you new progress pictures. I've also started some of the sheet metal fab inside the car.

and also sending you pictures of my new wheels. they are 20inch front and rear. the rear wheels im sending out to get Widened from 9.5 now to 13inches wide. The fronts are going to stay 20x8.5.

Well hope you and your wife are doing Great. I will talk with you later. Take care.
