

Working on the side marker lights.....first had to cut the hole and then make a pocket so the lights will set in and be flush with the outside like they are supposed to be.

